Why is it that children can see things that adults no longer can? In the clouds or in the stars, young people can spot creatures and create stories. In Can You See Me?! what might at first glance seem like a jumble of triangles will pop out as a regal lion or a playful seal. Once you have seen the animal you can't go back. If you are having a hard time filling in the lines try the clues or ask for help from someone younger than you. Can You See Me?! is a children's book with bright colors, an engaging challenge and fun-to-read clues. It is a hit for both young and old alike.
