It has been six months since Emily Ross disappeared on a cold winter day while walking to her class at the University of Oregon. It has been six months without clues, without leads, without hope.

Detective Ellis Frazier is desperate. He knows it is only a matter of time before the investigation ends up as a cold case, dead and forgotten forever. At the end of his career, and his rope, he is willing to try anything.

Even if that means asking Abby Craig for help and stepping into her dark, colorless shadow world. A world inhabited by nightmares.

A world populated by ghosts.

This is the eighth book in the bestselling 44 series.
