Roses are Red, Violets Kill You (An Albertus Oak Mystery Book 1) Ben Dawny

Albertus Oak has big problems. His neighbours are being killed, his love life is in the doldrums and his mysterious new employer seems to have some very strange ideas on how to garden.

To discover who is bumping off the villagers and survive long enough to judge the local bake-off Albertus must run the gamut of cowardly werewolves, incompetent mystics, paranoid trees and the indomitable ladies of the Women's Institute.

In this hilarious head-scratcher of a mystery the gardening dryad must pit his horticultural wiles against the forces of murder, confusion and competitive baking.

(This paranormal cozy can be read as a standalone mystery or as the first book in the Albertus Oak Mystery series)
