The Ghost of Dormy Place Chris Bradbury

Unemployment is beginning to take its toll on Tyrone Muth. One day he decides that enough is enough and begins to fight back. As he struggles through one setback after another, we go back into his genes to find out what made him the man he is and answer one of the great questions: are we the masters of our fate or the victims of our misfortune? Chris Bradbury's portrayal of the three generations that lead to Tyrone Muth dissects life through madness and adversity, innocence and guilt and the importance and absurdity of the journey that we take. cbradbury.co.uk
