The New Conspiracy Handbook Presents: 31 Suspicious Suicides Simon Trinculo

This book examines true life mysteries with an unusual twist . . . in each one, the dead victim is also a prime suspect. Each of the thirty one chapters takes a person whose death was officially ruled a suicide, presents evidence that they may have been murdered instead, and lets the readers decide for themselves which side to believe. Perhaps you are curious as to what mysteries await you when you read this book. 31 Suspicious Suicides covers celebrity deaths such as Marilyn Monroe and Mindy McCready and historical figures ranging from Cleopatra to Adolf Hitler. Also included are the people who stood up to powerful forces, be it exposing CIA secrets or opposing the Iraq War, and ended up dead shortly thereafter. Finally, there are deaths that can only be described as truly bizarre, such as the death metal singer whose fresh corpse was featured on his band's album cover. Also featured is a never-before-seen theory of Kurt Cobain's death. If you are the type of person with the courage to look past the official story and examine the details for yourself, this is the perfect book for you!
