The Spanking Digest: Issue 4: a journal of spanking fiction LSF Publications

Celebrating diversity in spanking fiction, this issue of The Spanking Digest features the following stories:

An Incident in Madrid by Quentin Quillis: While working away on a project in Madrid, an American consultant gets to spank a female associate with the permission, and under the instruction, of the woman's husband. But that's not all he has permission for...

Three Girls by Sam Stewart: Great Aunt Jane's Last Will and Testament makes for interesting reading and leads to spankings for all three of her great nieces, but for very different reasons.

Not Too Old, After All by Alice Turner: When Abby goes home from university for the weekend and stays with her friend, Suzanne, they end up getting in trouble and both get spanked by Suzanne's father.

Late Night at the Train Station by Frankie Tutz: On the way home at the train station, Ben admires the photo of a sexy girl on a billboard who is clad only in a pair of skimpy red panties. He can't believe his luck when he actually meets her on the train and she asks him to spank her!

Suffering Suffragettes by Rosanna Young: Being the police chief's wife and daughter doesn't save them from being arrested during a Women's Suffragettes demonstration. Initially relieved when they are ushered into the chief's office, they are both soundly spanked by him. Later, back home, his wife is made to bend over the bed for six strokes of her husband's belt.

No More Spanking! by SarAdora: After Spencer disobeys her husband and takes the car out in icy weather and narrowly avoids getting injured, he takes her over his lap and spanks her. Spencer is not at all happy and voices her displeasure...
