The Stranger Chris Van Allsburg

Braille version of the book. Includes the original color illustrations and English text interspersed with the plastic Braille pages. This Print-Braille book was distributed by The Children's Braille Book Club, sponsored by National Braille Press, Inc. and with permission of Houghton Mifflin Company, the original publisher. Why a Braille picture book? For all sorts of reasons, but consider that you may want to read a picture book (or allow it to be read) by more than one child or brothers and sisters, one of whom might have limited sight and the other full vision. Print-Braille books keep everybody happy and involved.
