All I've Ever Wanted (Arabesque) Adrienne Byrd

When single mom Kennedy St. James stumbles across the brutal murder of an assistant district attorney, she narrowly escapes with her life. Certain that Atlanta's finest can catch the culprits without her help, she intends to fade into obscurity. But sexy homicide detective Maxwell Collier isn't about to let her off the hook—or out of his sight.

Maxwell is actually enjoying keeping close tabs on his beautiful witness. And when he realizes that he's not the only one scrutinizing her every move, he'll do anything to keep her from being hurt. Now, as danger—and desire—heat up, Maxwell the investigator has to convince Kennedy to testify. But Maxwell the man has to show her that she's all he's ever wanted.
