The Lion and the Unicorn Richard Harding Davis

An illustrated collection of 5 short stories: The Lion And The Unicorn; On The Fever Ship; The Man With One Talent; The Vagrant; and, The Last Ride Together. What if figures of animals had lives of their own? If the figures of a lion and a unicorn at the shop across the street could talk, what would they say about the little things in life that they see every day on the streets of London? This short story describes the love story of Philip Caroll and Helen Cabot, as witnessed by these two figures.
