Enlightened Romance: Marital Happiness Ramaswamy Thanu

This book deals with romance of a different type. Normally romance depicts emotional outbursts of feelings of intense urge with the ingredient of explosive underbelly passions driving the partners to physical intimacy which often surfaces and ultimately result in physical contact of various kinds sometimes branded as indecent. It seeks to explain the meaning of romance, how it starts, different stages of evolution, the type of romance, promoting mutual understanding, revealing identity of interest, outlook, tastes and future plans and finally getting married. In this book the topic of romance is dealt as a sublime experience. No doubt feelings and emotions do rush in but they are in the background of a supreme goal of love flowing from the heart tempered and directed by the intellect and not guided by the power and thrust of the underbelly. The contents are presented in a sequence .starting with the hidden seeds of romance raising their heads in the educational institution, incubating and developing over a period of five years culminating in a holy marriage in the traditional way. The intervening period witnesses display of body language, tiny episodes and later intelligent and emotional communications. All through detailed analysis of the various stages, implications and impact on family harmony and happiness is maintained. The feelings are restrained and sublimated and kept within limits of utmost decency, strictly observing a line of control, to be a model for any couple desiring a happy lasting romantic married life ensuring stability and sustainability.
