Ribbons In The Sky Faye Wallace

After the passing of her father and during the loneliest and most emotionally puzzling time of her life, Candice Johnson, an unpredictably outspoken and potentially clumsy young Bostonian reminisces and discovers the hidden meanings of her late father's warnings and foretelling words within the pages of his favorite book "How to Grow a Vineyard".

Forewarned by passages in her late father's favorite book, her life turns upside down when those words come to pass amid startling betrayal and murder.
