Jainism at a Glance: a religion of non-violence Subhash C. Jain

The book traces the antiquity of Jainism, delineates its basic principles, and explains its significant aspects such as the nature of the soul, doctrine of Karma, the concept of god, and the salvation path. The book is directed at a younger generation of Jains born and raised outside India, and highlights the Jain way of living happily. It examines Jainism in the broader context of Indian history and culture.
