Designed to boost self-esteem and build confidence in children of all ages, this fun rhyming picture book follows a freckle-faced girl and a gap-toothed boy throughout their day as they show the reader they celebrate their appearance and feel comfortable in their own skin, just the way they naturally are!

By the end of the story, young readers will be chanting the theme of the book: "I'm proud to be naturally me!"

While this book features African-American children, it's message of self-acceptance is a universal one that can be enjoyed and appreciated by children of all races.

Sneak peek from the book: "There 19s really nothing more unique Than these six freckles on my cheek
Sometimes I count them one by one And then start over when I 19m done"
