Three weeks before her wedding, Emma thought she had all the arrangements for her special day under control.

But it seemed there was one thing she didn't have nailed down - her feelings for the groom.

Is that the only reason sexy photographer Kyle unsettles her so much when he takes her pre-wedding boudoir pictures or are his hints about tying her up and punishing her a clue to exactly what she needs from a man?

This sizzling short story of 11,000 words is just right for bedtime or anytime you need a break.

Because of mature themes and language, this love story is not suitable for children or for anyone offended by sexy stories about consenting adults who can't help wanting more than vanilla.
