Deadly Risks Lew Paper

A heart-pounding thriller which provides a new slant on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The novel revolves around a young woman's pursuit of her father's hidden past and the role he played in President Kennedy's murder. Kelly Roberts knows nothing of her father's secret life until he dies and a lawyer gives her a letter from her father with the ominous warning that she should discuss it with no one but him. When she later tries to contact the lawyer, she learns that he has died suddenly leaving her to pursue the mystery of her father's letter without the lawyer's guidance. With twists and insights based on political reality and historical fact, Deadly Risks weaves a tale of intrigue and passion that resounds with the ring of authenticity
