“Her mother was going to stop lying awake in the middle of the night worrying about how she would pay the bills, worrying about not being able to provide for her and Carolyn. Why? Because Rebecca Coyle said so.”

Rebecca Coyle is a brilliant student who can do anything she wants in life. There’s just one problem: her dreams of attaining a higher education are waylaid by her family’s dire financial situation.

A perfect student whose life revolves around books and not boys, her life is forever shattered by a chance encounter in the girl’s bathroom where she meets Monica “The Mauler” Mahler, a drug-dealing cigarette smoking bitch who takes what she wants when she wants from who she wants.

She sets Rebecca down a path of sexual discovery and liberates her hidden desires that challenges everything Rebecca thought she knew. And the world will never be the same.
