Kiss Me Again (Holiday Hearts) (Volume 1) Susan Scott Shelley

Kira Kallis, marketing director at her family's toy company, is newly thirty, tired of being single, and looking for love online. Hunter York, her older brother's best friend, runs the company's IT department. He's protective and insists on checking into her online matches who draw too many questions and yield not nearly enough answers. As they spend more and more time together, Kira starts to imagine life with Hunter by her side. But his dedication to her brother, an Army buddy who saved his life, and her family, who gave him a chance when no one else would, makes her off limits in his eyes. Kira wants to find someone in time for Valentine's Day but as the date for celebrating love grows closer, her prospects aren't looking good. And Hunter, despite his resolve to remain just friends, wants nothing more than to be her Valentine.
