The Devil's Workshop: A Novel Stephen J. Cannell

In the bowels of a super-secret bio-weapons lab in Maryland, doom in its most insidious form is being refined.

They told USC grad student Stacy Richardson that the death of her noted microbiologist husband was suicide, but nothing will convince her of that. Now only her own death will keep her from the truth...

They told "Lucky" Cunningham he was doing his patriotic duty, but not about the terrible plague he was bringing home with him from the war. Now, with nothing more in his life to lose, he's riding the rails across America--straight into the heart of a nightmare too horrifying to contemplate...

White supremacist Reverend Fannon Kincaid told his hobo acolytes that one day their racial "enemies" would perish. Now he holds in his possession the unthinkable means to an unspeakable end...

Civilization's final drama is about to unfold--as busy hands construct doomsday at...
