It's Jake's 7th birthday and his grandfather has a gift for him: a big tatty bag!

There's a party at home to celebrate Jake's birthday. Her mother's busy entertaining the guests and preparing food and his grandfather is in his room, just like always. Jake was then surprised to find out that his grandfather has a big tatty bag as a gift for him. The problem is that Jake has no idea why his grandfather would give him such a thing. For one, it was old and people would probably laugh at him if he brings it to school. Plus, he's sure his mother would probably just put it in the wash then forget about it. And he does not even go out a lot, except in school and in the field, sometimes, but only if his mom or his grandfather is with him. In short, he feels like he lives a pretty dull life and the bag will only add to how boring his life already is.

But the bag is not just any ordinary bag and that's what Jake will find out on his special day.

"Jake and the Magic Bag" is a story filled with magic and adventure and of the truth that loving and accepting your family is the best gift that someone could have. It's a story about the importance of appreciating what you have and learning that there's a big world out there for you to explore. More than that, "Jake and the Magic Bag" is also a story of believing in yourself and knowing that you can do great things because you are an awesome person!
