El Vientre del Samurai: Ken Shi Tao (Spanish Edition) Jose Jesus Rodriguez

Ken Shi, heredero del clan Fujiwara, solo tiene quince años pero ya desde niño ha sido sometido por parte de su maestro, el terrible general samurai, a un tortuoso adiestramiento para recibir la sabiduría del secreto del vientre. Ahora que Japón está bajo la amenaza del gran khan tartaro Ogedei, el emperador Toshito temeroso de la invasión, encarga a Ken Shi, que vaya al tartaro para firmar en su nombre un tratado de vasallaje con el amenazante invasor. Es así como el joven samurai se embarca con su padre en un viaje por mar y por tierra, a través de China y Mongolia. Pero la desgracia le persigue, dejando a su paso un reguero de muertes hasta que queda solo y herido. Deberá enfrentarse a enormes peligros para cumplir con su honor, y para ello cuenta con el mejor aliado que un guerrero puede tener: la sabiduría del vientre. La novela, que revive a los líderes más notables de la época para que nos cuenten sus batallas, conjuga historia, ficción y sabiduría oriental, pero es al mismo tiempo el viaje iniciático de un joven hacia la pubertad y la madurez. Desde la primera página rezuma sabiduría a través de los códigos samurais, máximas y reflexiones de los maestros del joven Ken Shi, del lama del Tíbet y de los líderes militares."
