You're about to discover how to buy a house for the first time.

A truly daunting prospect when you think about it. You want to own property for the first time but you already know that buying a house isn't like buying a car. There's the loans, the kinds of loans, and let's not even get started on the location!

In my book I lay it all out for you. I show you what you need to know on facts. I help you answer the question of "can I afford it?". I go through the pre-approval process, the negotiations as well as everything you need to know about loans. I even provide you a handy checklist that you can take with you so you're always in the know.

Here Is A Preview Of What You'll Learn

- Can you afford a home?
- Home Loan facts and fiction
- The pre-approval application process
- What to do after the loan is approved
- Your first time buyer checklist
