Book info: Nechole Olden was a woman who had just graduated college and had relocated to Fairfield, Connecticut. Where she was offered a job right out of school at one of the biggest publication companies in the world. She was very excited to start her new life, living alone as an independent adult. But what she didn't count on was a sudden change of her plans as fate stepped in, planning to conquer her... in the form of two men. Two dominate men who could smell her innocence from a mile away. An innocence that had called to them both, but on two different levels. The secret, lies and manipulation to have her, had these men willing to do anything. Two will play but only one will win. This book has two parts. Both must be read to full grasp the story and its depth. This is book two, the concluding book of this story. This book is intended for mature audience.
