Introduction to Painting with a Palette Knife: A practical reference guide to painting with knives

Jeanette Jobson

Introduction to Palette Knife Painting is a reference guide for artists who want to understand more about the techniques used in creating impasto art, using palette and painting knives. The guide contains practical information on palette knife and paint choices, use and characteristics, techniques to achieve a variety of surface textures, lines and paint applications, as well as tips for cleaning and storing knives. This resource will answer many of the common “how do I...” questions asked by artists about this unique painting style. It is not a step by step painting book but an introductory guide to knife techniques for beginners.
