 - After 2 failed marriages, Adam and Clara finally thought that they found happiness. She had a daughter and he had a son. The four of them just clicked. They were having a lot of fun together and Clara was surprised to see that Ana finally agreed with a man she dated. Adam was a very charming and good looking man. In less than three months, they moved in together and they got married. What Clara did not know was that her daughter liked her husband a little too much. Adam was attracted to her too, but he did his best to hide it. He kept telling to himself that Ana was his daughter. Even if she wasn't his biological child, he tried to behave like a real father. This was the only way he could find to keep his feelings under control.
