People tell you all the time you can choose who you want to be ... forge the direction of your own path, but what happens when life chooses for you? Haunted by my past, I'm living my life the only way I know how. Emotionless. Disconnected. Alone. A last minute change in assignment puts me in charge of protecting her, Julia Parker, daughter of the wealthiest businessman in Brookedale, New York. She's attractive, stubborn, and completely closed off. Worst of all? She's affecting me in ways I can't even begin to comprehend. Being around her is anything but easy. I'm losing focus. I'm questioning things I never would've questioned before. I'm forgetting the real reason I'm here. But when I'm with her, the constant darkness that surrounds me disappears, and the only thing that seems to matter is figuring out why. *Please note: This book is a companion novel to its predecessor, Moment of Weakness. It is not a standalone. For maximum reading enjoyment, World of Darkness should NOT be read before reading Moment of Weakness. ***This novel contains adult/mature young adult situations. It is only suitable for ages 18+ due to language, violence, and sexual situations.
