Covenant of Arms (The Black Lion Regiment Book 6) James Burnett

Jacob Wise had to choose between his commander's orders and the safety of fellow soldiers. He made his choice, and the price was dismissal from the Government's Army. But with that price came an opportunity-- he joined the Black Lion Regiment where his skills, and his integrity, had value. When a chance message to a friend brings the Regiment to embattled Kyushu, Jacob finds himself in the full fury of war, in a particularly dangerous game, part of a field intelligence team deep behind enemy lines, attempting to unravel the flatheads' network so the Lions can teach them the dying game....
