Darkness into Light Kim Draluck

At 18 Evie has been aged out of the foster care system. Her parents died tragically when she was 8. She lives a lonely life. Her best friend, Hunter, was adopted. She was left alone with unbearable and hurtful foster parents. Hunter is the only true friend she's ever known. After losing touch she feels she's got nothing left to live for. She is desperate to find him. She must decide what to do with her life. A runaway high school dropout finds herself at the Queensboro bridge to ponder her fate. She doesn't know where to go and she doesn't want to live anymore. Does she jump? All odds are against her. Her fate is in her own hands. She will need the courage to face the long road ahead.
