Find Me Shelley K. Wall

Amanda Gillespie never bargained on seeing Jackson Holstenar ever again. In law school, he was the sexy, rich guy every girl wanted-even her. But they never quite got past the friend zone, and their complicated relationship ended with her being “asked to leave” the law firm where they worked. Now she's got a great legal career and has met the perfect guy . . . who unfortunately happens to be Jackson's good buddy, Carter. Jackson's used to getting what he wants-and he's always wanted Amanda. But he can't betray his friend, no matter how crazy their chemistry. No, he needs to stay far away from Amanda. So why does he find himself offering to help her become his pal's ideal girl?

With a little help from fate, these two confused hearts might just find a way back to each other for good.
