Presidential Puppetry: Obama, Romney and Their Masters Andrew Kreig

Presidential Puppetry documents what millions already suspect: that our top government leaders are guided by secretive elites whose agendas harm the vast majority of voters. The startling findings of DC attorney and investigative reporter Andrew Kreig reads like a fast-paced mystery. The revelations culminate in an “Ah-ha!” moment that will surprise and even scandalize some readers. Based on half a decade of research, the author describes clues given him that led, step-by-step, to Presidential Puppetry's timely and explosive findings. The deception and greed in the United States political system now threaten the American way of life. Kreig has uncovered: • The hidden power centers behind Barack Obama and Mitt Romney; • What the president's second-term appointments reveal about your future; • The hidden agenda behind the sex scandal ending the career of CIA Director David Petraeus; • 2012 election machine fraud; • Intrigues of Karl Rove, Supreme Court justices, and other power brokers; and • The explanation for Obama's lost and hidden records. Presidential Puppetry's author Andrew Kreig is an accomplished investigative reporter, attorney, radio host, and legal reform advocate who directs the non-partisan Justice Integrity Project. Kreig has been listed in Who's Who in the World since the mid-1990s. He holds law degrees from Yale and the University of Chicago, and has lectured on five continents about civic and business affairs. He documents Presidential Puppetry with nearly 1,000 hot-linked endnotes to help other researchers extend his findings. Distinguished critics are praising Presidential Puppetry, while also recognizing the challenge the book poses to the public: "This is clearly the worst of times in many years, perhaps since the Civil War," says longtime Washington-based author and editor Sam Smith. "The problem that a writer has is that you can write this, explain it, argue, it, prove it. But in the end, the reader and friends have to do something about it. Read Presidential Puppetry. Learn the insider's story that directly affects you and your family. Make your voice heard!
