The Northern Enchantment: Norse Mythology, Earth Mysteries and Celtic Christianity Margaret Jonas

The idea of “north” suggests much more than wintry cold, ice, and snow. To many, it hints at something magical, enchanting, and mysterious. This book explores the spiritual aspect of this attraction through a survey of ancient history, Norse mythology, and contemporary studies of Earth mysteries and sacred sites. From her detailed research, Margaret Jonas traces the birth of Celtic Christianity in the British Isles, Ireland, Scandinavia, and Germany to reveal a time when ancient prophecies related to the Sun and divine beings came to fulfillment. A new spiritual wisdom gradually spread across Europe?not just northward from the south, but also eastward from west. The author describes how a paradisiacal element from the earliest stages of Earth’s evolution was preserved and nurtured in hidden places associated with the northern mysteries.

This fascinating work of accessible scholarship features chapters on Hyperborea, Thule, and Apollo; the Druids and Odinic Mysteries; Norway and the Celtic Christian Legacy; the Number Five and the Etheric Body; the Externsteine and the God Vidar, and Finland. The book concludes with hints of a future when northern magic will be transformed, and “new clairvoyant faculties will be within the reach of all humanity.”

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for
