An Actress Prepares

Genie took a deep breath and knocked on the door. It had taken her twenty minutes to circle around the block three times before she worked up the courage to pull into the hotel parking lot. Then it took ten minutes to psych herself up to get out of the car, walk through the lobby and ride the elevator to the suite where the shoot would take place.

Two days ago she had answered an online ad for video models. She told herself it was because she needed the money, but it was the thought of acting out her wildest fantasies in front of a camera that made her get in her hottest outfit and audition.

She looked down at herself. Maybe she overdid it by dressing the way she did. She had thrown on a trench coat in case she got pulled over or had a flat tire. But underneath, she wore a tiny pink mini-dress that barely reached the top of sheer thigh-high stockings encasing lightly tanned and toned legs down to her five inch-heeled black pumps.

She had thought about what panties should go under her skirt but at the last minute, decided to not wear any at all. Genie licked her lips and raised her hand to knock again. Just as she did, the door swung open.
