He's an older man, the only one she isn't allowed to have. He's perfect for her, and she already trusts him completely. It's hard not to cross any lines, especially when she can get away with a little flirtation. Holding hands, sitting on his lap. She knows just what she can get away with, and loves to get a rise out of him.

The man of the house always has time for his brat, and her teasing begins to take its toll. He knows that it is wrong, but she is such a beautiful young woman. Who else better to take care of her most intimate needs? The clothes she wears around the house, the smell of her hair when she nestles up against him on the couch when they're all alone, everything about her drives him wild and he doesn't know how much longer he can control his urges.
