How far would you go to save someone you love?

His friend is dead. His daughter is missing. Half crazed with grief-induced insomnia, paranoia and hallucinations set in. But all is not as it would seem...

... a darkness that threatens to consume him
... an uncapped syringe on the nightstand
... the blood red glow of a distant star
... an angel of light beckoning to him
... an unlikely alliance with a stranger in the psych ward

Unsure of what to believe or who he can trust, Jack sets off on a whirlwind search for his little girl. As he begins to doubt himself, a sinister truth roils beneath the uneasy surface. Time is indeed running out.

Written in homage to Lovecraft, King, Hunter, and Raught, this first person narrative is a psychological thriller. Replete with mysterious twists and turns, fans of Memento and Lost will enjoy the rollercoaster ride as Jack's cracked mind oozes the story elements in a thick, fantastical reality that only he could conjure.

Will he find his daughter in time? The facts lie before him, though beyond reach, if only he can open his eyes.
