Evil can be very attractive.

Kiana Taylor's life is spiraling out of control. Plagued by insomnia and dark memories, she is on the verge of insanity. She sees a sexy doctor on TV, promising a way to solve her problems, so she pays him a visit, deciding she has nothing to lose. He is willing to help, taking her on as a subject in his sleep study. How much trouble can a psychiatrist be?

Dr. Stavros Kane comes alive when Kiana steps into his office. She is perfect for his study, but not for the reason that she thinks. He wants her and he will use her problem as a way to get closer.

When Kiana begins to suspect that she is a part of more than a harmless sleep study, she starts to investigate Dr. Kane. What she discovers makes her want to run, in order to save her very soul. He takes her on a dark, dangerous, all-consuming carnal ride. She knows that she needs to get out of the devil's clutches. But does she really want to get away from him?
