It's a smaller world than you think... When I went to dinner at the neighbors, I wasn't expecting that...

Amanda, a sassy recent college graduate, is fed up with her parents. Instead of taking the time to find a career in her field, they'd rather she find a job flipping burgers now. Out of frustration, she takes a train to visit her relatives in Cedar Rapids for a short vacation before the Christmas holidays.

Josh, a grizzly bear shifter and the son of a billionaire, has a lot on his plate. He's eager to hibernate like he has every other winter. This year his parents won't let him until he finds a mate. Out of frustration, he hatches a plan that just might get them off his back.

Hearts collide and love blooms in this tenderhearted shifter holiday romance.

Note: All of the books in this series are standalone and have the HEA you're craving!
