At last, after what seems like an eternal wait, Hugo has caught his mate. But not in any romantic way, oh no, she's lying face down in the dirt after trying to rustle his cattle with the other wolf raiders. All she wants to do is rip his throat out; he knows that because she's telling him explicitly, with some extremely unladylike language. All he wants to do is pick her up, throw her over his shoulder, and take her to his bed. There he will indulge in such primal pleasures, he will capture her heart too. Right?

If only life was that easy.

Damn it! Bliss Merric has just about had it! Her life has never been her own, she has always put her family first. That is why she is out here, in the dark with her brothers, trying to rustle cattle. Well, at least she was with her brothers, but they have now abandoned her and left her alone. With her mate!

It's not what she wants; he's not what she wants. But when you're face down in the mud with his big, toned, muscly body pinning you down... No! Don't think of him like that. He is the enemy, she has to fight her way out of this.

Only she's no longer sure what she's fighting for. Because when her captor turns her over and she looks into those sweet amber eyes, all she wants to do is scream "Take me to bed!" But she's a raider, and her family depend on her, and family always comes first. Or does it?

Can Hugo catch his wolf, or will she run out of his life forever?

Contains scorching hot scenes. For adults only.
