Duke Samael's World is a dry and barren planet, filled with intense class divides and staggering disparities in both the wealth and status of its residents. It is a place where the poor struggle under a blazing sun to make their livings whilst the rich fritter away their days with drink and high-societal balls. A matriarchy of proud women where only two things are truly held in high esteem; good genes and fine family breeding.

It is in this arid land that Hiram Laekus finds himself penniless and disenfranchised. Once of a grand and noble family, everything has been stripped from him. Firmly settled into a morose cycle of drinking, whoring and sleeping Hiram seems content to dream of escaping the dry heat of his home. To flee upon one of the gleaming spaceships soaring from the local star port and leave the sand and dust behind.

However his matron has other plans in mind for Hiram. In order to restore honour to the family name and coin to their bank accounts a deal is struck between the Laekus clan and the powerful Vladislows. A trade involving the one final asset that the Laekus's have remaining.

In a reversal of the norm, it's Hiram himself who is up for grabs and the nobleman is thrown into a marriage he has no desire for, nor belief in!

This 24,000 word sci-fi novella contains forced marriage (of a man!), themes of domination, deflowering, roughness, oral and anal sex as well as romance and pregnancy. It won't always be a gentle ride, but will Hiram's bitterness fall in the wake of human emotion? Read and find out!

Excerpt:

Hiram dug his fingers into her neck and twisted it to one side, allowing the woman to breathe but also to hear and see what he intended to do. He was hurting her, Hiram could see it in her flushed freckled face, yet she said not a word. She endured the pain even as her skin bruised beneath his fingers.

He smiled at her and it wasn't a pleasant one either. Hiram's face was filled with inebriated malice. His free hand reached down and gave Deborah's upturned cheek a sharp little slap. She made a harsh sound as she sucked in air through her teeth and squeezed her eyes shut. Deborah looked afraid and was panting with short, pinched little gasps. That was good, he wanted her to fear the reality of what she wanted from him.

Hiram leaned in and brought his face back to hers.

'Do you still believe in everything your precious Pasha has to say? That I'm nothing more than a piece of meat? Breeding stock for your better than thou family. That the only purpose of our relationship is to carry on your family's good name and social standing? That I should be bound to your home and to do as you please, when you please?' asked Hiram dangerously. 'Answer quickly...'

'Yes.' whimpered Deborah. 'That is why we are wed. That is why you are here, to give me the life I was born to have.'

'Thought as much.' concluded Hiram.
