Her Dream Man: She met him in a dream... What if dreams really do come true? Denise Summers
Men! Who needs them! Right? After a run of bad relationships, Kate Sullivan was determined never to marry again and never, never to depend on another soul. That was until she met the mysterious, Mr Carmichael... Despite all her independence, he has a way of tantalising her senses, of mesmerising her mind and melting her tenacity. Literally the man of her dreams – she tried to forget about him, but some things are just not possible! Are her dreams of him premonitions of something else... some deeper meaning, or are they a warning to keep away? Is he her dream man or a reoccurring nightmare? Either way, she has a feeling this handsome stranger is going to make her find out.
