Romance: Another Way Jasmine Bowen

He is a second Prince from a world that is universes away. Only recently has he found out that he is not the son of the king at all, but a mixed race orphan abandoned at the doorstep of the palace - a result of a forbidden union between two feuding families.

Always a prince of mischief and no good, his anger grows as he loses what he thought was his identity. He is considered a villain, even evil, with no regard for those around him. But every villain has his own side of the story. Now, he's got Earth in his sight as a place to claim for his kingdom. But first, he needs the tools to do so, including translating an ancient and lost text in order to make his magic unparalleled in power.

On Earth a girl of mixed race descent who is comfortable in her identity works as a translator of ancient languages in a national museum. What started as a simple business deal blossoms into a friendship and a rocky romance, with complications like no other.
