Through the Glass Darkly L Stewart Marsden

"Through the Glass Darkly" explores a myriad of themes, from death to what is possible, and everything between. Marsden carves vignettes from a variety of subjects, and injects his wry humor and sense of irony about "propriety" he sees as not always being so proper. From political satire to science fiction to horror, "Through the Glass Darkly" offers the reader a variety of short as well as long fiction to enjoy.
