Every day, American consumers and workers are hit with a barrage of schemes, laws and cons that steal not only their time, but also their hard-earned money. These games, created in many ways through dysfunctional politics and by shady politicians, create a major roadblock for Americans trying to capture the American Dream. In Cast Aside: How Political Games Destroy The American Dream, author Charlie R. Claywell looks back to more than 40 years ago when small incremental changes and missteps unleashed the current state of affairs that gutted our small towns and stripped Americans of the ability to achieve upward mobility,
