Janet was sick of her life. Sick and tired. She couldn't take it anymore. This was not what her life was supposed to come to. She'd planned on doing great things, important things. She'd planned on leading an exciting life. Yet as her 30th birthday approached, she found herself stuck in a dead-end, monotonous job, as a call center operator.

Right when she thinks she's at her breaking point, right when she thinks that she won't be able to take it anymore, her bubbly cousin Beth invites her on a two-week vacation to Cabo San Lucas. This trip will be unlike any Janet has taken in her life. When she meets a mysterious, cinnamon-skinned woman named Rio, Janet's life will never be the same again. This alluring woman with mysterious black eyes is just what Janet needed in her life.

"Her Name Was Rio" is full of sexy surprises... a taboo lesbian bbw romance that will have all your sense tingling!
