Miraculous Escape (Flee to the Mountains Series) (Volume 2) Donna J Benson

Evil, darkness, and chaos are spreading over the world. In preparation for the end of times, God gives many of his believers a vision to build safe havens— secret sanctuaries to protect Christians from persecution, hatred, and even death. These faithful visionaries establish ranches and small towns around the country, and God begins to lead his people to refuge.

Two of these chosen ones are Joanna Holton and her adult son, David. They are on the run from Omar Winston, the evil commander of The Enforcers, a private army that hunts down Christians for detainment.

When Joanna and David are eventually captured by these God-hating socialists, the two are placed in a detention warehouse and told that anyone who denounces Jesus Christ as Lord, Savior, and the Son of God may go free.

Those who refuse will end up in even worse conditions.

Joanna and David's next decision could mean life or death. Will the prospect of freedom and self-preservation win? Or will they be able to trust God in the face of evil?

This riveting installment of the Flee to the Mountains series continues to prepare believers for the dark times ahead.
